Economical massage tables and chairs ideal for massage students...

NEW PORTABLE MASSAGE THERAPY PRODUCTS PROVIDE AFFORDABLE CONVENIENCE FOR STUDENTS AND SPA PROFESSIONALS

DALLAS, TX (February 27, 2008) –Providing educational institutions with massage therapy programs a selection of economical, portable equipment, Knight Educational Products recently introduced a new massage table and chair, as well as a line of accessories for educational institutions and students in the healthcare, spa industries, and personal massage training markets. Knight Educational Products is a global manufacturer and supplier of medical and educational training equipment.

The folding massage therapy table, designated the HMT-1 Series, supports a working weight of 500 lbs., and features a power lock support system, leg extensions and a padded face rest. It is available in teal, blue, black or sand, with the option to print a school or company logo. The 38 lb. table is 30''W x 73''L and is adjustable from 23'' to 35'' high, with a durable carrying case with shoulder strap and handles included. Typical pricing for the HMT-1 Series starts at $250.00 and optional accessories are available.

The folding massage therapy chair, designated the HMC-1 massage therapy chair, is lightweight and portable, yet supports a working weight of 350 lbs. with a 7-position seat, combined with independently adjustable armrest and a variable position crescent shaped headrest. The HMC-1 Series chair can be adjusted to fit any position or height requirement. The 24 lb. chair is 33''L x 18''W x 51''H, and is sold with a padded carrying case and shoulder straps and can include a printed school or company logo. Typical pricing for the HMT-C Series starts at $260.00.

“These affordable, high quality massage therapy products are ideal for students, instructors or educational institutions with massage therapy programs,” said David Luna, Vice President of Sales and Marketing for Knight Educational Products. “Our commitment is to develop products that offer value and convenience for students training in these fast-growing fields.”

In addition to folding massage tables and chairs, Knight’s massage therapy products include: a three piece flannel sheet set with one face cradle; three-piece polyester microfiber towel set; a two pocket nylon holster with adjustable straps; and eight-ounce pump bottles that are ideal for a variety of spa applications including lotions, oils, shampoos and conditioners.
